

Winter Warm-Ups

After a long day of skiing, nothing beats warming up at the lodge! Warm up your sentence skills by following the directions below.

Directions: Read the complete subjects and complete predicates on the skis below. Make a complete sentence by matching a subject to a predicate. Write the matching numbers in each snowflake; then write the sentences on the back of this sheet. The first one is done for you.

(The brown beagle in the lobby wore a bright red sweater.)

1. the brown beagle in the lobby

1, 10

11. ate a bowl of chicken noodle soup

2. Beethoven and his buddies

12. covered up with a warm flannel blanket

3. Boxer

13. the ski instructors

4. bought delicious funnel cakes covered with powdered sugar

14. watched videos

5. a group of youngsters

15. the bulldog with the broken leg

6. the family of six

16. relaxed by the glowing fire

7. played cards in the loft

17. watched skiers speeding down the mountain's slopes

8. soaked their sore muscles in the spa

18. weary skiers

9. Betty's brother

19. a lodge employee

10. wore a bright red sweater

20. ordered a cup of steaming hot chocolate

Bonus Box: Write a paragraph about an imaginary ski trip. Be sure to include a subject and predicate in each sentence.

